- Chief Operating Officer (COO)
- Head - Internal Audit
- Head - Legal
- Chief Executive Officer (CEO)
- Chairman Audit Committee

3.3 Report Information

To facilitate the reporting process, the Whistle Blower should provide the necessary information specified in the form as per Annexure 1. The Protected Disclosure should provide the names of the Subject and contain specific details and factual information to support the act(s) of wrong-doing or breaches. Although the Whistle Blower is not expected to prove the truth of an allegation, at the minimum, some facts and evidence in support of the concerns should be provided.

In case the Protected Disclosure is communicated in electronic mode, the same should be forwarded with the subject as “Protected disclosure under the Whistle Blower Policy”.

The Company will undertake to treat the Protected Disclosure sensitively and will do its best to protect the identity of the Whistle Blower. However, the Company cannot provide any categorical assurances on confidentiality since circumstances may be such that the identity of the reporter becomes apparent during an investigation or may need to be disclosed in a regulatory proceeding.

3.4 Investigation Process

For alleged misconduct by any Representative other than the CEO or any Board Director

- (i) Promptly upon receipt of a whistle-blowing report, the person receiving the Protected Disclosure should report the incident to the Head of Human Capital who will inform to the COO and CEO about the same. The Head of Human Capital, COO and CEO shall assess the severity of the alleged wrongdoing/breaches/violations etc.
- (ii) If the Protected Disclosure warrants further investigation, the CEO will advise COO to convene an Inquiry Committee comprising of Fraud Control Unit, Human Capital and internal audit as deemed appropriate.
- (iii) Once the Inquiry Committee is convened, it shall perform a preliminary assessment on the Protected Disclosure whether Fullerton India has a duty to make a report to any regulatory or enforcement authority under any law or regulation. If so, the Inquiry Committee shall notify the CEO, COO & Head of Human Capital and make the said report as soon as practicable.
- (iv) The Inquiry Committee may then conduct further investigations to make a finding as to whether the Subject has committed the alleged misconduct. The investigation shall be document-based and the Subject will normally be informed of the allegations at the outset of a formal investigation and have opportunities for providing their inputs during the investigation.
- (v) Subjects shall have a duty to co-operate with the Investigator or any of the Investigators during investigation to the extent that such co-operation sought does not merely require them to admit guilt and Subjects have the right to avail protections available to them under the applicable laws.
- (vi) Subjects have a right to consult with a person or persons of their choice, other than the Investigator / Investigators and / or the Whistle Blower. Subjects shall be free at any time to engage counsel at their own cost to represent them in the investigation proceedings. However, if the allegations against the Subject are not sustainable, then the Company may see reason to reimburse such costs.

(vii) Unless there are compelling reasons not to do so, Subjects will be given the opportunity to respond to material findings contained in an investigation report. No allegation of wrongdoing against a Subject shall be considered as maintainable unless there is good evidence in support of the allegation.

(viii) The investigation shall be completed normally within reasonable time of the receipt of the Protected Disclosure.

Once an investigation process is complete, the report of the investigator shall be placed at an Audit Committee meeting for review of the members of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee may suggest suitable action against the Subject, as it deems necessary. Provided further that if any of the members of the committee have a conflict of interest in a given case, they should recuse themselves and the others on the committee would deal with the matter on hand.

For alleged misconduct by the CEO or Head - Human Capital or COO or any Board Director

(i) In the case where the misconduct involves the CEO or Head - Human Capital or COO or any Director of the Board, the Reporting Authority shall be the Fullerton India Chairman or Chairman of the Audit Committee (if he is not the subject matter of the complaint). If the Chairman determines that the report warrants further investigation, he will convene an Inquiry Committee comprising of an independent persons that may include other Directors of board, internal and external auditors or consultants as may be appropriate. The follow-on investigation process shall be as per stipulated in para 3.4 (iii) to (ix) of this Policy.

All incidences and the outcome of the investigations shall be reported to the Board by COO.

3.5 Handling of Anonymous Protected Disclosure

Information or Protected Disclosure from an anonymous whistle-blower is generally not encouraged to prevent misuse of this Policy. Anonymous Protected Disclosure will be handled as follows:

(i) Against staff two levels or more below from the CEO, the Head of Human Capital and CEO will decide whether to investigate or disregard it.

- (ii) Against staff one level below the CEO, the matter must be brought to the attention of CEO. CEO in consultation to Board of Directors will decide on further investigation or disregard the complaint.
- (iii) If the Protected Disclosure is against the CEO or a Board Member, the matter must be brought to the attention of the Board Chairman / Chairman of the Audit Committee who will decide on the appropriate course of action.
- (iv) If the Protected Disclosure is against the Chairman of the Audit Committee, the matter must be reported to Chairman of the Company.
- (v) If a Protected Disclosure is received by any executive of the Company, other than the concerned authorities, the same should be forwarded to the CEO / Chairman of the Audit Committee for further appropriate action.

The investigation process shall be as stipulated in para 3.4 of this Policy. The form provided in Annexure 1 has to be completed as a matter of record.

3.6 Non-Retaliation & Abuse of Policy

Whistle-blowers shall be protected from any disciplinary or retaliatory action from the Company, regardless of the final outcome/action arising from the report. Appropriate disciplinary action may be taken against Subjects who retaliate against any whistle-blower. Whistle Blowers raising a concern or issue should ensure to restrain from reporting frivolous, groundless or issues in bad faith that shall result in abuse of this Policy and procedure provided thereunder and appropriate disciplinary action may be initiated against Whistle Blowers making such malicious complaints as per the provisions of the Companies Act and Rules thereof.

In addition, reporting a concern does not automatically provide immunity to the whistle-blower, if the person is himself/herself a party to the offense.

4. PROCEDURE FOR WHISTLE-BLOWING
